1/22/01 A99-03-049 Southern California Gas Company, application under the catastrophic event memorandum account for recovery of costs related to the El Nino storms.

Summary: On January 17, 2001, Dave Gilmore, attorney for Southern California Gas Company (SoCalGas), spoke by telephone with Trina Horner, advisor to Cmmr. Lynch. In the communication also participated Kimberly Freeman, State Regulatory Relations Administrator, Sempra Energy. Gilmore urged the Commission to reject the alternate because it is based upon the erroneous assumption that SoCalGas did not provide sufficient evidence that the pipeline repairs caused by the El Nino storms of February, 1998 could have been avoided by proper planning and that the cost of these repairs was incremental to pipeline repair costs already included in SoCalGas' rates. Gilmore explained that requiring SoCalGas to await its next base margin proceeding to seek recovery of the repair costs associated with the El Nino would be fundamentally contrary to the establishment of the Catastrophic Event Memorandum Account by the Legislature. Gilmore stated that there is no need for the Commission to devote additional resources to another examination of these costs in a future SoCalGas base margin proceeding when they have been comprehensively reviewed in this proceeding.

Summary: On January 22, 2001, Shirley Woo, attorney for Pacific Gas and Electric Company (PG&E), send a copy of the letter (attached to the notice) to Cmmr. Lynch. Copies of the letter were also sent to Cmmrs. Bilas, Wood, Duque, Brown, ALJ Kenney, and Paul Clanon, Director of the Energy Division. The letter describes PG&E's petition to modify decision D00-12-064. The letter states that to keep core gas flowing for as long as the wholesale electric crisis continues, PG&E requests immediate authorization to use its customer account receivables and customer accounts to secure payment for its core gas purchases.

Summary: On January 23, 2001, Glen Sullivan, attorney for San Diego Gas & Electric Company (SDG&E), e-mailed a letter (attached to the notice) to ALJ Kenney. Sullivan also caused a hard copy of the letter to be delivered to ALJ Kenney, and Cmmrs. Lynch, Bilas, Duque, Wood and Brown. Referring to the draft decision of January 18, 2001, SDG&E requests in the letter that the Commission modify the Ordering Paragraph in the draft decision to reflect more precisely the substance of discussion in the text of the draft decision on three issues. SDG&E also requests to clarify that debt issued within the authority of D97-11-012 could not lose its authorization as a result of future increases in the undercollection in SDG&E's balancing account established pursuant to AB 265.
